“ I had the great privilege of getting to live with my Aunt Bo and Uncle Danny in 2016 for almost 6 months. Bo and I shared so much. The stories of her childhood in Marianna brought me a clearer insight into my Mothers world. The amazing stories of their Mother, who was a shining example of kindness and understanding. A strength of spirit which Bo definitely inherited. We also shared the trials and tribulations of motherhood, so strange that some of our children are so alike. I will never be able to watch the Rachel Maddow show without thinking of Aunt Bo. Laughter came easy to her and she shared it willingly. She never judged me or my beliefs and she eagerly listened when I had something to share. I knew she was not much longer for this world but so did she. She was ready to say good-bye. She did so quietly and gently. I don't cry for Bo, I cry because I will no longer be able to visit with her. Thank you Aunt Bo for giving me a peaceful haven when it was much needed. Your Loving Niece, Joyce
